

Out of the Box Solutions for TODAY'S Employment Challenges

Keynote Speakers for Central Regional Workshop - November 6, 2014

Kathy Condon

Author, Trainer and Business Consultant www.kathycondon.net

“Face to Face Communication in a Digital Age” “Communicating with Businesses to Obtain Jobs for People with Barriers”

Kathy Condon travels the world as a speaker and trainer to assist people with realizing their full potential.

In an effort to share her wisdom, Kathy became an award-winning author with her book, It Doesn't Hurt to Ask: It's all about Communication, which USA Book News named a "Best Book Finalist." Hundreds of people receive Kathy's popular "Weekly Wisdom" email that offers her insight about current events, business communication and career issues.

Kathy is certified as a Performance Coach, an Interact Personal Assessment Profile Administrator, an Employee Retention Specialist, and a Global Career Facilitator. She is also a graduate of Anthony Robbins Mastery University and holds a BA from the University of the Virgin Island, St. Thomas. Kathy Condon is a permanent resident of Palm Springs, CA.

Mariam Salpeter

Author, Social Media Expert and Consultant www.keppiecareers.com

“Five Ingredients for Social Networking for Career Success”

Miriam Salpeter is owner and founder of Keppie Careers, a coaching and consulting firm helping job seekers leverage social media and other tools to achieve their goals. She has appeared on CNN, and major media outlets, including The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, Forbes and others have quoted her advice. Miriam writes her own blog and writes for U.S. News & World Report and for AolJobs.com. Her Amazon best-selling books, Social Networking for Career Success, Social Networking for Business Success: How to Turn Your Interests into Income and 100 Conversations for Career Success.

CNN named Miriam to their list of “top 10 job tweeters you should be following.” Mashable.com named her a “top 5” influencer on Twitter for job seekers and Forbes selected her blog as a top career resource. Monster.com included her in their “11 for 2011 — Career Experts Who Can Help Your Job Search” and respected online resource. Quintessential Careers called her a “Top 15 Career Mastermind.”

Miriam coaches job seekers about using best practices to land opportunities by offering clarity, confidence and know-how. A vice president for a Wall Street firm prior to earning a master’s degree from Columbia University, Miriam ran the Career Action Center at the Rollins School of Public Health of Emory University before starting her own business. She has been empowering job seekers and small business owners for over 18 years.

